

FOUNDATIONS OF DIPLOMACY

Diplomacy In Action: Interactive Simulations

Course Content

Students will be expected to prepare for and to participate actively in a series of diplomatic simulations reflecting a wide range of contemporary international issues. Students will also be expected to make short presentations on topics relevant to the simulations and to play an active part in the ensuing debates.

- | | |
|---------------|--|
| Week 1 | Volcanica simulation/
international situation seminar |
| Week 2 | London Embassies Visit |
| Week 3 | Volcanica simulation
international situation seminar |
| Week 4 | Small Group Tutorials for Final
Presentations |
| Week 5 | Volcanica simulation
international situation seminar |
| Week 6 | Visit to Chatham House and RUSI |
| Week 7 | Tutorials |

- | | |
|----------------|---|
| Week 8 | Volcanica simulation
international situation seminar |
| Week 9 | Viva voce examinations |
| Week 10 | Viva voce examinations |

Intended Learning Outcomes

By the end of the term you should be able to:

- enhance your ability to hold the floor and to enter into debate in a committee/group setting
- engage tactfully and sensitively when participating in committee/group meetings with international colleagues
- develop your ability to analyse, synthesize, and present ideas and factual information both accurately and succinctly

