

FOUNDATIONS OF DIPLOMACY

English Grammar I

Course Content

English Grammar I will focus on and review core grammatical areas that are central to almost any text or spoken discourse.

Language will be studied in relevant professional and diplomatic contexts as well as in more everyday contexts.

Homework tasks will be set to enable you to practise and consolidate the language covered.

The core course content will include:

- Present, past and future tense and aspect
- The noun phrase
- Adverbials
- Cohesion: reference, ellipsis and substitution, conjunction and lexical cohesion

Intended Learning Outcomes

By the end of the term you should have:

- developed a clearer understanding of the grammar structures studied
- improved your grammatical accuracy in speaking and writing
- developed your ability to monitor and self-correct your grammar in writing
